A HORRIBLE TRAGEDY.

A Woman Murders Her two Children and Suicides.

AN ATTORNEY IN A NEW ROLE.

The Coke Strike—President Huntington's Report Shows Increased Earnings—Secretary Proctor Arrives in Omaha.

A Horrible Tragedy.

Special to the Journal.
OMAHA, April 9.—A special from Herman, Nebraska, tells us a horrible tragedy there to-day, of Mrs. Andrew Doll killing her two children and suiciding. A year ago she planned the same crime but it was frustrated and the unfortunate woman sent to the insane asylum. A short time ago she was released as cured. This morning before the children, a girl and a boy aged seven and nine, were dressed, she took them to the kitchen and with an axe crushed their skulls. She then replaced the bodies in bed, nailed the doors shut, and after taking a dose of concentrated lye, called out of the window for the neighbors to come and see her children. When the door was forced the sight was sickening, on the bed lay the mangled forms of the two little ones, while in the kitchen the insane mother lay writhing on the floor. She died in great agony in a short time.

The Coke Strike—Officers Arrested.
Special to the Journal.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 9.—The strike leaders have agreed to stand aside and allow the men to act independently. With this end in view a convention of strikers was called for to-morrow, the object being the appointment of a Board of Arbitration which will ask for a conference with the operators as representatives of employees and not as an organization.
MR. PLEASANT, Pa., April 9.—The arrested men were brought here in squads and taken to the Squire's office in as quiet a manner as possible, to keep the news from the strikers. A large crowd gathered however, and the sidewalk and street fronting the office were soon a mass of humanity. The defendants waived a hearing and they were taken to 18th Regiment camp where they will be carefully guarded until to-morrow. The defendants are not worried over the ultimate outcome of the suits.

The Ladies Disagree.

Special to the Journal.
CHICAGO, April 9.—There was quite a scene at the meeting of the Executive Committee of the Women's Board of World's Fair Commissioners to-day. Mrs. Potter Palmer, President of the Board, is ex-officio President of the Executive Committee, and the Committee proceeded to complete its organization by the election of a Secretary. Miss S. G. Cook of Tennessee was chosen, but Miss Phoebe Conzans of Missouri, Secretary of the Board, claimed that she was ex-officio Secretary of the Executive Committee and declined to yield to Miss Cook. No arguments could move her and the meeting adjourned with the matter unsettled.

Preparing to Manufacture Guns.

Special to the Journal.
WASHINGTON, April 9.—The ordnance officers at the War Department have been earnestly at work for weeks past preparing to give effect to some of the more important provisions of the Fortification Appropriation Act, which will go into operation after June 20th. To avoid loss of time most of the advertisements for proposals to supply material have been prepared and will be issued in advance of the beginning of the new fiscal year. Congress appropriated $800,000 for the procurement of the necessary forgings, and material will be assembled at the Watervliet factory, and finished guns turned out.

Earnings of the S. P. R. R. Co.

Special to the Journal.
SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—President Huntington of the Southern Pacific made a brief report to the stockholders to-day, showing the operation of the company for 1899. The gross earnings were $48,352,503, an increase of $1,884,540. The operating expenses were $31,155,202, an increase of $748,675. Taxes and other fixed charges make up a total of $15,333,543, so that the balance remaining after the payment of all charges under lease is $2,377,713.

Southern Pacific Officers.

Special to the Journal.
SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—The Southern Pacific Directors met to-day and elected the following officers: C. P. Huntington, President; C. F. Crocker, First Vice President; A. N. Town, Second Vice President; J. C. Stubbs, Third Vice President; Timothy Hopkins, Treasurer; M. A. Lansing, Secretary and Comptroller.

An Attorney Sings.

Special to the Journal.
INDIANAPOLIS, April 9.—Lemon Reinhold, an ex-Constable and attorney was arrested this afternoon on a charge of burglary. During the past month there has been numerous daring burglaries in the city. Last week several of the gang were arrested, and one confessed to the Grand Jury. He implicated Reinhold as the leader, saying the latter directed all the robberies. Several weeks ago Reinhold's wife committed suicide, and an account in a local paper reflected on Reinhold's cruelty, which so angered him that he ordered the gang to attempt to burglarize the house of the city editor "to get even."

The Florida Senator.

Special to the Journal.
TALLAHASSEE, April 9.—The sensation of the day is the publication of a letter from President Rogers of the State Alliance, in which he says he cannot support Dunn for United States Senator "because he is a National Banker," nor Call either, "because the latter is not in sympathy with the demands of the National Alliance." The latter appeals to the Alliance legislators (who number fifty-five, a clear majority) to unite upon a straight out Alliance candidate. Over half of the Alliance legislators are supporters of Call, however.

Not a Candidate.

Special to the Journal.
OMAHA, Neb., April 8.—Secretary Proctor and party passed through Omaha this evening en route to Washington.

In reply to a question the Secretary said: "I am not a candidate for Senator from Vermont. All this gossip about me in that connection is without my knowledge. I intend to go direct to Washington without any stops and resume the duties of my office."

G. A. R. Encampment.

Special to the Journal.
ASTORIA, Or., April 9.—The State Encampment of the G. A. R. met here this morning. Officers were elected for the ensuing year. O. Summers, of Portland, was elected Department Commander. A parade occurred this afternoon which was followed by an excursion to the end of the jetty. A banquet was given the visitors this evening.

Baseball.

Special to the Journal.
ST. LOUIS, April 9.—Cincinnati game postponed on account of rain.

BALTIMORE—Baltimore, 7; Boston, 8.

LOUISVILLE—Louisville, 13; Columbus, 6.

PHILADELPHIA—Athletic, 8; Washington, 1.

SAN FRANCISCO—Sacramento, 1; Oakland, 2.

Ladies to the Front.

Special to the Journal.
ATOHISON, Kan., April 9.—Two Kansas towns have elected woman Police Judges. Mrs. Mary L. Burton, formerly editor of the Kansas and at present postmistress, at Junctiontown, and Mrs. Jessie McCormick of Barr Oak, Jewell county. Both are strong prohibitionists.

The Ballet Girls Not In It.

Special to the Journal.
ST. PAUL, Minn., April 9.—The McHale bill, which prohibits the wearing of tight on the stage in this State and compelling the use of at least a short skirt, passed the Senate this morning.

Posted a Forfeit.

Special to the Journal.
NEW ORLEANS, April 9.—Boh Bowen and Meyer posted $500 forfeit cash to-day, for a guarantee of their appearance in the Olympic ring, May 19.

Acquitted.

Special to the Journal.
ROME, Ga., April 9.—Mrs. McKee has been acquitted of the charge of murdering Mrs. Whitman.

The first Western States Commercial Congress will convene at Kansas City Tuesday, the 14th inst., pursuant to a call by the Kansas Legislature. Delegates are asked to attend on behalf of all the States west of the Ohio. It is stated in the call that the congress will be partisan in no sense of the term and no party questions will be permitted to be injected into its proceedings. The object is stated to be "the advancement of the material interests of Western agricultural and mining States."

Secretary Proctor is said to have a long written play which she is pleased to describe as a tragedy, but which is really a piece of the most wildly and extravagantly sensational kind. It is entitled "Meister Manolly," and it is to be introduced at the Vienna Court theatre. The piece is of the old transpantine order, with ghosts, murders, a wife walled up alive, and other sensational episodes, and it is full of preposterous situations, absurdly stilted dialogue and bombastic furioso declamation. Queen Elizabeth, when she was recently at Vienna, invited the company of the Court theatre to partake of a sumptuous dejeuner at the Hotel Imperial, and the champagne flowed in rivers at the meal. Her majesty read the play to her guests, and then she went to see the emperor, and induced him to command that the piece should be produced at the Hofburg, where, as a rule, new plays are not readily accepted.—London Truth.

Favorite Initiations at Harvard.

The favorite mode of torment seems to be to make a man go out and sell something, or perform some manual labor in the streets. Not long ago a student who was very much in love with a pretty Cambridge girl was compelled to go to the home of her parents with a Jew peddler's pack and sell all the members of the family the cheap handkerchiefs and atrocious brass jewelry with which he was loaded down. The match was not broken off, but there was a frigid coolness in that house until the real object of the visit was afterward explained. Another rich and immaculate young swell was ordered into a ditch where some Italians were digging in the main street of Cambridge, and into it he went with pick and shovel, clad in a dress suit, which was made part of the command.

Rubber boots, an ulster and a fur cap are frequently ordered on a victim in the hottest days of term time, and they must be seen on him whenever he appears outside his room. Cambridge, like other college towns, has become partly accustomed to these college vagaries, and whenever any one is seen upon the streets acting particularly like a lunatic people class him at once as a candidate for a college society.—New York Star.

Moor Baths.

The moor baths, of which much is now heard, and which are provided at many Austrian and German health resorts, were first used at Franzensbad. In 1833 Dr. Poschmann, a physician there, believed that he had found in them a new curative medium, and they have since become popular. Some physicians still question their efficacy, while others in Austria and Germany rely upon them to render good service in many maladies. Though the bath is composed of peat or moor earth to which enough water has been added to make a thick paste of the mass, yet the peat is different from that which is extracted from a bog in Ireland or Scotland.

In both Ireland and Scotland the peat is used as fuel; at Franzensbad the mineralized peat will not serve such a purpose. The bog from which it is extracted has been saturated throughout countless ages with mineral water, and the product is a strong chemical compound. Thus a moor bath is a mineral bath in a concentrated form, and effects are produced upon the system by taking a course of these baths which cannot be produced, according to experts, by any mineral water.—Blackwood's Magazine.

Spider poison appears to have special effects on certain insects, and the largest flies are not always the least affected by it. Insects over which spider poison has but little influence are usually left meshed in the web to struggle until exhausted before the spider attempts to devour them.

WHAT IS SCROFULA.

It is that impurity in the blood, which, accumulating in the glands of the neck, produces unsightly lumps or swellings; which causes painful running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; which develops ulcers in the eyes, ears, or nose, often causing blindness or deafness; which is the origin of pimples, cancerous growths, or the many other manifestations usually ascribed to "humors," which, fastening upon the lungs, causes consumption and death. Being the most ancient, it is the most general of all diseases or affections, for very few persons are entirely free from it.

How Can IT BE CURED

By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the remarkable cures it has accomplished, often when other medicines have failed, has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. Some of these cures are really wonderful. If you suffer from scrofula, be sure to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. "My daughter Mary was afflicted with scrofulous sore neck from the time she was 22 months old till she became six years of age. Lumps formed in her neck, and one of them after growing to the size of a pigeon's egg, became a running sore for over three years. We gave her Hood's Sarsaparilla, when the lump and all indications of scrofula entirely disappeared, and now she seems to be a healthy child." J. S. CARLISLE, Nauright, N. J. N. B. Be sure to get only Hood's Sarsaparilla Sold by all druggists. 25c per box. Prepared only by C. L. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

OPERA HOUSE DRY GOODS STORE.

To the Business Men and Citizens of the State of Nevada:

THE TIME HAS COME when I am compelled to plead my own cause in this boycotting business. First, I will acknowledge that I signed the first contract to close at 8 o'clock, also that I did all I could to carry it out and help the League; but as it has been my misfortune to have reverses in business, and as I was compelled to raise money for parties that I owe, I went to the Clerk's League at a meeting on two different occasions, and told them it would be impossible for me to close at 8 o'clock.

Now, when the League says I, on different occasions, violated my pledge, all I can say and prove, and that by Mr. Al Wilson, who is a member of the League, that it is FALSE, as Mr. Wilson has been in my employ since the contract was signed.

So far as my word is concerned, it is for the people to say, and not for the League to publish such trash to the entire State. I will further state that when the time comes that a few boys try to pull down and degrade a man when he has the misfortune that I have had, then it is high time to sell out and let the boys run the town.

Respectfully,
C. W. BOOTON.

BREVITIES

N. J. Foxwell of Verdi visited Reno yesterday.

The Essex Ice Co. are shipping ice to the Insane Asylum.

Amity Lodge No. 8, will hold its regular convention this evening.

Ex-Controller J. F. Hallock, arrived last night on his way to San Francisco.

Mrs. O. W. Borton and daughter returned yesterday from San Francisco.

Bishop Leonard, of the Episcopal Church, arrived last night from Utah.

Henry Piper, of Virginia, and George Hark, of Carson, were in Reno yesterday.

G. E. Holesworth will occupy his new cottage in Haydon & Shoemaker's Addition next week.

Sheriff Bottsford brought James Linwood to the Insane Asylum last night from Ormsby county.

E. B. Zabriskie, of the Carson Mint, and his son Chris, of Candelaria, left for San Francisco last night.

The members of the Riverside Social Club gave one of their pleasing and enjoyable parties last night.

The Belmont Courier says the Harrison mine in Jefferson District is producing ore that assays over $3,000 to the ton.

It is announced that the American hog has at last forced his way into Germany, the edict against pork having been revoked.

The Marble Works at Essex are shipping three carloads of sawed marble to San Francisco every week, where it is used in the Mills building.

The steamship Cachemere has arrived at New York with 1,600 immigrants. The threats of war seems to increase rather than decrease immigration from Italy.

The Verdi Mill Company held its annual meeting yesterday and re-elected the old board of Trustees and officers and levied an assessment of three dollars per share.

The National Guard of Virginia City, (Co. A., N. G.) will give a grand masquerade ball at Piper's Opera House tonight. Several members of the Reno Guard will attend the ball.

The anniversary of the introduction of Odd Fellowship in the United States will be celebrated in Virginia City under the auspices of Silver State Canton, Patriarchs' Militant, on the 24th instant.

O. Lemery has purchased H. E. Davis' interest in the Arcade Saloon and is now sole proprietor. Clem has many friends and will, no doubt, do a good share of the business. Call and see him.

Coyote scalps command a premium of $5 each in California. In Nevada such scalps are worth only 50 cents each, and the Truckee Republican fears that unscrupulous persons will cross the State line for game.

The weather for a week past has been more like that of March than of April. It has been blustery every day and cool at night. It is better to have a cool spell now than later in the season when it would damage fruit and early vegetables.

The Second Assistant Postmaster General is working on a new schedule for trans-continental mail service. It involves some important changes on the Union Pacific, also the Northern Pacific. It is believed it will shorten the time from New York to San Francisco about three hours.

The Board of County Commissioners of Elko county have, by advice of the District Attorney, issued a proclamation that they will not issue bonds as provided in the Act of the Legislature for building a railroad in that county. So says the Independent.

It is rumored that Herman Oelrichs and his wife have separated. He has gone to Carlsbad, Germany, and she came West to see her mother, Mrs. Fair. The cause of the estrangement is said to be money, of which Mrs. Oelrichs did not receive as much as Mr. Oelrichs expected.

Attention is called to the advertisement of the Reno Mill and Lumber Company. Besides doing nearly all the lumber business in Reno the company have added to their stock the finest assortment of wall paper in the State, and all kinds of hardware for building purposes, paints, oils, etc., etc.

James H. Moore of Fort Worth, Texas, whose cattle interests are the largest in the southwest, tells the San Francisco papers that the days of the cattle kings and cow boys are numbered. The small farmer is slowly but steadily crowding them out, and in a few years they will be gone, like the buffalo and Indian.

From H. B. Luther, who has returned from Idaho the Silver State gets the following: The Del Mar Company are working 200 men on the White Talk lode. Their receipts for the month of March were $110,000, and their expenses were $28,000. The lode is 28 feet wide in places, carrying gold and silver. The town of Del Mar has two blacksmith shops, six saloons, one hotel and one restaurant. It promises to be a good, lively camp. The only drawback now is the scarcity of lumber, which has to be hauled nine miles by sledges through snow and several miles by wagon over a very muddy road.

A BOLD ROBBERY.

Al White Robbed of Eight Hundred Dollars.

Last night at about 11:30, when James Conroy, who deals faro for Al White, had just closed up the game and was making up his cash, he was suddenly confronted with a six-shooter held by a tall man with a black silk handkerchief with eye-holes in over his face. The man pointed the gun at Conroy, and reaching out his hand placed two stacks of the bright twenties, consisting of $400 each, in his coat pocket, and before Mr. Conroy had time to realize what had happened, the man with the mask and $800 in coin had disappeared down the stairway and out the back door. There were only three men in the room at the time, the others being Tim Pollard, who stood by and watched the proceedings, and a gentleman who was standing at the head of the stairs was quietly motioned back into the room with a flourish of the necktie, and thought a joke was being perpetrated instead of a bold robbery.

The robber was evidently an old hand at the business, as he seemed to be the coolest man in the room. There were several men sitting in the bar-room besides the proprietor, Al White, and the bar-tender, but no suspicion of any thing unusual occurred to them until informed of the robbery by Mr. Conroy, although they all saw the man go up stairs. Immediately after the robber made his escape the officers were notified, and in, perhaps, twenty minutes officers Upson and Nash had their man and $270 of the stolen money. He was arrested on the west-bound train just as he took a seat in one of the coaches. They had followed him from the corner of Virginia street and Commercial Row, where they met him making his way to the train. He gave the name of Thomas Hale and claimed to be an agent of Pinkerton's detectives. He was locked up to await an examination. The officers are satisfied that there was another man interested in the robbery, who has the remainder of the money.

AN ELKO COUNTY FOSSIL.

The State Prison Bird Tracks Discovered.

A correspondent of the Elko Independent writing from Skelton, Mound Valley, says:

"Our otherwise quiet little community was thrown into a fever of excitement on Saturday last when G. T. Suttle, while excavating for a levy, unearthed a mammoth foot supposed to be of the ostrich species. The leg was disconnected at the knee-joint; the leg from the knee down was intact. This relic of ancient times (and it is undoubtedly such) was found about eight feet below the surface of the ground. The entire length of the limb from the joint to the end of the middle toe is six feet nine inches; the length of the toes are respectively nine, seven and six and one-quarter inches each. It is thoroughly petrified and heavy as rock. Mr. Suttle has vainly searched for the balance of this wonderful creature, but as yet has been unable to find it. It is the opinion of old timers here that this mammoth bird was killed by Indians and left on the bank of Little Cottonwood Creek after being stripped of meat, where it became covered by sliding earth from the mountain side."

SI PLUNKARD, BY GOSH!

"Si Plunkard," a comedy-drama in four acts, in which is introduced several novel mechanical effects, is underlined for its appearance at McKissick's Opera House next Wednesday evening, April 15th.

Farmer J. O. Lewis, who is a versatile actor of great ability, assumes the title role, and will no doubt prove an excellent "Si." Mr. Lewis' supporting company is a good one and the play should be presented to a large house. Reserved seat sale open at S. J. Hodgkinsons. Secure seats early.

Lander Wins.

In the suit for taxes brought by Lander county against the C. P. R. R. and appealed to the Supreme Court, the county wins, and the People's Advocate publishes the following:

CARSON CITY, April 6. H. MAYENBAUM: State vs. Central Pacific reversed. (District) Court instructed to modify judgment by adding thereto taxes and penalties due upon 28 39-100 miles (of railroad) at valuation of $20,000 per mile.

J. D. TOMLINSON,

Attorney-General.

I. O. O. F. Celebration.

The 72nd anniversary of the founding of Odd Fellowship in America will be celebrated on the 24th by a grand ball at National Guard Hall, given under the auspices of Canton Silver State, Patriarchs' Militant. Three elegant prizes will be given away to purchasers of ball tickets—a lady's prize of an elegant gold watch, a gentleman's scarf pin, and an emblematic pin as a member's prize.—Virginia Chronicle.

A Good Marriage Fee.

The Carson Appeal says: Bishop Whitaker married a society couple in Philadelphia a few weeks ago and the wedding fee was $10,000.

Rev. W. R. Jenvey, formerly of Reno, has also struck it rich in Hoboken. The Easter collection was $10,500.

The Gazette, speaking of this incident, remarks: "Some of these figures ought to remind him of Reno."

Yes indeed, the last two noughts.

It has been discovered that grated horse radish eaten freely at meals is a preventive of grippe, pneumonia and colds. The theory is that it makes the blood circulate freely.

BOB INGERSOLL'S LIMIT.

He Would Never Charge the Debt With Electing President Harrison.

At a dinner given recently by Jerome Buck of this city, one of two Pennsylvania politicians present told a good story on Senator Matthew Stanley Quay.

It was stated that the Keystone "Boss" had called on President Harrison to obtain a "fat job" for one of his followers. The President was not in a generous mood, and Mr. Quay "put the screws on him" in the usual way, saying that His Excellency enjoyed the occupancy of the White House "by the will of Quay."

"It is about time that you and many others should cease to worry me with such requests," said the President. "And you might as well understand now that I am President of the United States by the will of God."

"Matt" Quay was not prepared for such a shock and he staggered out into the open air. On the porch of the Executive mansion he met Colonel Robert G. Ingersoll.

"Hello, 'Matt,' what are you looking so blue about? One would think you had just come out of an indigo factory instead of this whitewashed mansion."

The Senator mournfully related his grievance, not omitting the President's ingratitude in attributing his success to the Almighty.

"What!" exclaimed Colonel Ingersoll. "The President says the Lord elected him to office? Well! I have said some pretty rough things, but I never charged the Lord with doing such an act as that."

The Palace Hotel, which is well and favorably known to every old Nevada, is being conducted as usual by that veteran landlord, Al White, who spares neither pains nor purse to provide for the comfort and convenience of guests.

The Truckee Republican says: A genuine Winter snowstorm played hide and seek among the mountains on Monday and Tuesday and angry winds drove the blinding snow down through the canyons and swept across the valleys in thick clouds which were impossible to penetrate with human eye. It was one of the severest storms of the season and at quitting time Tuesday evening eighteen inches of the white stuff lay on the ground, and in some places piled up in drifts several feet deep.

The Postoffice at Pyramid was abandoned some years ago. The Department has just ascertained that the office, when closed, owed the Government $19, and yesterday Commissioner Byrnes and H. J. Thyes, who were on Postmaster Jackson's bonds had to pay $5 18 each to Uncle Sam.

Mr. Judson, who is at present at Truckee, makes good the amount though he claims the Government charged him for stamped envelopes which he never received and which he would not use at Pyramid in a lifetime.

Out of Work.
At a rough estimate 12,000 young women were thrown out of employment the last of the year from the retail dry goods stores of New York city. One firm alone dismissed 1,100 women and girls and another 700. These unfortunate little martyrs of commerce and circumstances were for the most part "extras," hired in November and December for the holiday trade at salaries that barely paid for car fare, lunches and the wear and tear of clothing. One manager, when approached on the subject, said: "I was ashamed to tell a girl who wanted an engagement the wages, and so dismissed her. It was less than her living would cost. And yet, what can I do? If women offer to come here to clerk for fifty cents a day why should I offer her $1?"
The trouble is women do not properly value themselves. They are alone in the world, dependent on their own energies; they want a chance, a footing, an opening—anything that will enable a beginning. In their desperation they will work for almost nothing, and once in a position, have not the bravery to assert themselves by properly valuing their services. Time goes on, the starvation wages are accepted, and not only does the individual suffer, but the whole community of labor is affected by the lower standard of resulting prices.
What the working girls of New York need is less poetry, less kitchen gardening, less aestheticism, less patronage, and a regular lecture on business tactics. She has no library, she does not take a newspaper, and if she is to know her worth the value of honest, earnest labor and the relation her skill and industry bear to capital, she must be instructed by sermon, speech or address. As it is, she is groping in the dark and growing the plant of experience for herself, but it is sad gardening, for there are thorns instead of fruit, and in the leaves is poison.—New York World.

Paying a Creditor.
Like many another famous man, both before his time and since, Talleyrand exhibited—at least in early life—a great reluctance to settling with his creditors. When he was appointed bishop of Autun by Louis XVI, he considered a fine new coach to be necessary to the proper maintenance of the dignity of that office. Accordingly, a coach was ordered and delivered, but not paid for. Some time after, as the newly appointed bishop was about to enter his coach he noticed a strange man standing near who bowed continually until the coach was driven away. This occurred for several days, until at length Talleyrand, addressing the stranger, said:
"Well, my good man, who are you?"
"I am your coachmaker, my lord," replied the stranger.
"Ah!" said Talleyrand, "you are my coachmaker; and what do you want, my coachmaker?"
"I want to be paid, my lord."
"Ah! you are my coachmaker, and you want to be paid? You shall be paid, my coachmaker."
"But when, my lord?"
"Hm!" said Talleyrand, settling himself comfortably among the cushions of his new coach and eyeing his coachmaker severely, "you are very inquisitive."—Boston Transcript.
